BIG RALLY

preliminary rally of the W. S. S. committee of Plymouth, Norfolk and Suffolk counties was held at the Hotel Brunswick last Friday afternoon, at 1 o'clock. By invitation of Mr. Robert Herriek, director of Massachusetts and Mr. Charles F. Weed, chairman of the June campaign committee, which is composed of Mrs. George T. Rice, Messrs. Edward L. Clark, Edward A. Taft and Stuart Walker. Scintilla had the honor of having the largest number of delegates present from any town in Plymouth county, having five, with Hull second with three delegates.

Cohasset, in Norfolk county, had several representatives present, but the roll was not called and therefore we cannot announce the numbers. Mr. Hugh Bancroft was present and had his endorsement as a speaker in the W. S. S. campaign right with him. He is proud of it, and justly so. Mr. Bancroft addressed the children of the William E. Russell school. The teacher had the children write about it and the following "write up" from little Daniel Haes, Grade 5, was sent to Mr. Bancroft, and will be always one of Mr. Bancroft's most treasured possessions. It is a true picture and "Daniel" is congratulated on his ability to read people. We are sure he "got" Mr. Bancroft correctly when he said "a good joyful man." Daniel has a style of writing which is unique and an exceptional way of "sizing up" which will bring him in money and friends. We'd like to have Daniel on the staff of the Hull East Wind or Cohasset Citizen. Here is the "write up":

Grade 5
May 21, 1918.

"Daniel Haes,
William E. Russell School.

The address to the children:
This morning on entering the hall I saw a man. As soon as I saw him I said to myself he is a good, joyful man and when he got through I said to myself it is true and so it was. He told us a funny story and everybody in the hall laughed and I also laughed too very heartily. He told us how we could help win the war and I hope everybody will do what he said. I am wishing that my father and mother and everybody in America could hear him. I am sure that he would help even more than they are doing now and we would win the war."

The meeting was enthusiastic and speaks well for the June drive. Save continuously, lend likewise.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS.

Dear Mother—This is a beautiful country, and it looks old and quaint, still it's a fine place. The people treat us fine, and I get plenty to eat. Have had good pleasant weather and I am feeling well. The nights and mornings are very cool, but the days are warm. I am in good quarters now; have nothing to complain about at all. I met some fellows I know from home. It already seems like old times. The people are making great sacrifices for the soldiers, going without food all they can, and lots of women are doing men's work. They deserve lots of praise indeed. I see lots of pitiful sighters; would like to tell you about them. The people at home should not complain about buying Liberty Bonds and Thrift Stamps. If they could see what the people over here are doing. They are having it easy home, only giving up a little money. Will have lots of interesting things to tell you when I get back home again.

I suppose you received my postal, telling of my safe arrival; had a pleasant trip; was not sick at all. The Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. are doing great work here. We are certainly well taken care of.

You will probably be getting ready for Memorial Day when you get this letter. It will be the first one I have missed. Remember me to every one at home, and don't worry about me. I am all O. K. My present address is
Wm. E. Botting, Camp Johnston,
April Replacement Draft, American
Expt. Force, France.

Your loving son,
Wm. E. Botting.

HOME PAPERS AT FRONT.

Second class mail is getting to France very slowly, and so is parcel post mail; but no matter how old it is upon arrival, the home paper is always welcomed by the boy at the front. See that a subscription is entered for every enlisted man from your town whether in this country or abroad. Get home of your patriotic citizens to pay the subscription if you can, but send the paper anyway.

TELEPHONE EFFICIENCY

"We are on the trail of every kind of interference with efficient telephone service at the present time, as well as seeking for the forms of waste in the telephone business," said Division Commercial Superintendent Conway, when asked about the discontinuance of the giving of time by operators to subscribers on Monday, June 3. "As in all big businesses in these war times, we must make every part of the organization as efficient as possible, and any usage of the telephone which in any way impedes the service for the government or for subscribers must be eliminated."

"While the giving of the time of day to anyone who has called has been of service to some of the public, the practice has grown to such an extent that many of the telephone companies in other parts of the country, as well as ourselves, have felt it necessary to discontinue to give such service. In the New England Company's territory there have been 100,000 calls per day, the bulk of such calls coming at times when our operating forces find it most difficult to handle them."

"As such a burden is obviously and avoidable waste, and as so large a portion of those inquiries have become a habit with many people, as happen in homes where clocks differ, and particularly through the desire of children to learn the time easily, we are confident that our desire to direct all of our energies toward the furnishing of effective telephone service will be understood by our subscribers. Relieved of that burden, the operators will be better able to serve all users of the telephone."

"Should any subscriber, through long habit, thoughtlessly ask the operator for the time after next Monday, the operator will make this response: 'I am sorry, but it has become necessary to discontinue giving the time of day.' Our subscribers, therefore, will know that this is the standardized statement which will be used by all operators throughout New England territory, and an operator's refusal should not in any way be considered as a personal discourtesy."

LOCAL COMMITTEE PLAN BIG RALLY

The committee on War Saving Stamps for the town of Hull is planning a big rally to take place in the near future at the Apollo Theater, Nantasket. Anastos Bros. have offered the use of this theater as a patriotic service. There will be a patriotic and appropriate moving picture show and several good speakers, including Mr. Frank S. Hickey of Kennerly, who is one of the government "four-minute speakers." Postmaster Frank M. Reynolds is chairman of the committee and is supported by a corps of efficient and enthusiastic workers. Members of the committee and friends will supply auto transportation so that all who wish may attend. There will be special music. Full announcement will be given later. The sale of W. S. S. in this locality has not been as much as it should. Hull must help Massachusetts go "over the top" in the sale of stamps. Don't forget the old saying, "As Goes Hull So Goes the State," rally to the rally; and begin now to buy stamps.

The June Drive is to secure 1,000,000 pledges from men, women and children of Massachusetts to buy War Stamps regularly during 1918. One object of course is to raise money, but the principal object of this drive is to bring home to each individual the ghastly reality of this war and the paramount duty of each person to take a positive part in winning it. There is only one positive part which it is possible for every person in America to take, and that is the one embodied in War Savings Idea, and that is why this Idea is the biggest thing in the War in which the people who stay at home can take part; that positive part is to give up all unnecessary things so that the labor which now goes into them may be available for the needs of the government, and then lend the money thus saved to the government by buying War Savings Stamps. It is unpatriotic to have anything which is unnecessary. Save continuously and lend continuously.

This is the foundation on which the whole war structure rests. The Drive begins June 7th and ends June 28th. To fitly observe Memorial Day buy War Saving Stamps. Count that day lost whose low descending sun sees from this purse no War saving Stamp purchased (not poetry but patriotic prose which arrives at the sublimity of poetry.) June 7 to June 28th is the date, but get ahead of it and buy W. S. S. now.

NEW SWINDLE — TAKES MONEY FROM PARENTS OF SOLDIERS

Parents of soldiers in camps are warned by the War Department of a swindle which has been successfully operated in various camps. A telegram is sent informing that the soldier has a furlough, and requesting funds by wire to come home, waiving identification. The rest is a mere matter of detail. Parents and friends should be warned of this game and of the similar one where the telegraphic request is to mail money to the soldier, care general delivery.

Announcement

The practice of calling upon telephone operators for information as to the time of day has grown to the point of interfering with the efficiency of telephone service.

For such information 100,000 calls are made daily in New England, the bulk of such calls coming naturally at times when it is most difficult to handle them.

Service efficiency now demands that the work of the operating force should be relieved of unnecessary burdens, and that all energies be directed toward the furnishing of effective telephone service, and to that alone.

Prompted by these considerations, the practice of giving information as to the time of day will be discontinued beginning June 3, 1918.

Only About Half the Steer is Beef

Live Weight 1200 pounds

100%

Dressed Weight 672 pounds of Beef

56%

When Swift & Company buys a steer weighing 1200 pounds, only about 672 pounds goes to market as beef; the other 528 pounds consists of hide, fats, other by-products, and waste.

When the packer pays 15 cents a pound for a steer, he sells the meat to the retailer for about 24 cents. But the packer gets only about 6 cents a pound for the other 528 pounds.

This means that the packer gets about 16 cents a pound for all the products from a steer for which he pays 15 cents.

The difference of 1 cent per pound covers the cost of dressing, preparation of by-products, freight on beef to all parts of the United States, operation of distributing houses, and leaves a net profit of only about 1/4 of a cent per pound on all dressed beef sold.

Large volume of business and utilization of parts that were formerly wasted, make this achievement possible.

FIGHT OR WORK, CROWDER'S ORDER

Ball Players, Bartenders, Golfers, Clerks, Gamblers, Must Find Useful Employment.

ACTORS ON EXEMPTED LIST

Sweeping Edict, Effective July 1, to Make Nation Efficient in War, Takes Registrants Out of the Deferred Class.

Bulletin. Washington, May 23. — General Crowder's new "work-or-fight" regulations may require professional baseball players either to engage in some useful occupation or to join the army. Baseball players, as well as jockeys, professional golfers and other professional sportsmen, General Crowder said today, will be affected by the regulations if strictly enforced. General Crowder said he did not desire to make specific rulings at this time and would make rulings only when cases came to him from local boards after July 1.

Bulletin. Washington, May 23. — Theatrical performers have been exempted from the new draft regulations at the direction of Secretary Baker, who is said to feel that the people cannot do without all amusement in war time and that other amusements could be dispensed with more readily.

THESE ARE HIT BY ORDER TO FIGHT OR WORK.

Idlers. Gamblers. Bucket shop employees. Race track attendants. Clairvoyants and the like. Professional golfers. Professional baseball players (probably). Elevator operators at clubs and stores. Club and hotel doormen. Waiters in hotels and clubs. Ushers in theaters. Attendants at sports. Persons in domestic service. Clerks in stores. Specially Exempt. Actors.

Washington, May 23.—Provost Marshal General Crowder today announced that every man of draft age must work or fight after July 1. The order is under a drastic amendment to the selective service regulations. All draft registrants, besides idlers, in what are held to be nonuseful occupations, will be given an opportunity before local boards to choose a new job or join the army.

Gamblers, race track and bucket shop attendants and fortune tellers head the list, but those who will be reached by the new regulation also include waiters and bartenders, theater ushers and attendants, passenger elevator operators and other attendants of clubs, hotels, stores, etc., domestics and clerks in stores.

Deferred classification granted on account of dependents will be disregarded entirely in applying the rule. A man may be at the bottom of class 1, or even in class 4, but if he fails within the regulation and refuses to take useful employment he will be given a new number in class 1 that will send him into the military service forthwith. Local boards are authorized to use discretion only where they find that enforced change of employment would result in disproportionate hardship upon his dependents.

May Solve the Labor Problem. The statement of the provost marshal general's office is as follows:

"Provost Marshal General Crowder today announced an amendment to the selective service regulations which deals with the great question of compelling men not engaged in a useful occupation immediately to apply themselves to some form of labor, contributing to the general good. The idler, too, will find himself confronted with the alternative of finding suitable employment or entering the army. "This regulation provides that after July 1, any registrant who is found by a local board to be a habitual idler or not engaged in some useful occupation shall be summoned before the board, given a chance to explain and, in the absence of a satisfactory explanation, to be inducted into the military service of the United States. "Any local board will be authorized to take action, whether it has an original jurisdiction of the registrant or not; in other words, any man loitering around a poolroom in Chicago may be held to answer to a Chicago board even though he may have registered in New York and lived there most of his life. "The regulations which apply to idlers registrants will be deemed to apply also to gamblers of all description and employees and race tracks, fortune tellers, clairvoyants, palmists and the like, who for the purpose of the regulations shall be considered as idlers.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

The Chinese alphabet consists of 214 letters. Oil has been discovered at Bell Island, Newfoundland. Ecuador has a tree producing berries which can be used as soap. Only a third of South America's population is of pure white blood. In 1656 New York city, then New Amsterdam and ruled by the Dutch, had 1,000 inhabitants, 120 houses and 17 streets.

The new regulation will also affect the following classes:

"(a) Persons engaged in the serving of food and drink, or either, in public places, including hotels and social clubs.

"(b) Passenger elevator operators and attendants, doormen, footmen and other attendants of clubs, hotel stores, apartment houses, office buildings and bathhouses.

"(c) Persons, including ushers and other attendants, engaged and occupied in, and in connection with, game sports and amusements, except actual performers in legitimate concerts, operas or theatrical performance.

"(d) Persons employed in domestic service.

"(e) Sales clerks and other clerks employed in stores and other mercantile establishments.

"Men who are engaged as above who are idlers will not be permitted to seek relief because of the fact that they have drawn a later order number or because they have been placed in class II, III or IV on the grounds of dependency. The fact that he is usefully employed will outweigh both of the above conditions.

"It is expected that the list of nonuseful occupations will be extended from time to time as necessity will require so as to include persons in other employments.

"Temporary absences from regular employment not to exceed one week, unless such temporary absences are habitual and frequent, shall not be considered as idleness. Regular vacations will not be considered as absences in this connection.

"The regulation further provides that where such a change of employment would compel the night employment of women under circumstances which a board might deem unsuitable for such employment of women, the board may take such circumstances into consideration in making its decision."

General Crowder Explains Plan. Explaining the new regulation and the necessity for it, General Crowder said:

"The war has so far disorganized the normal adjustment of industrial man power as to prevent the enormous industrial output and national organization necessary to success.

"There is a popular demand for organization of man power, but no direct draft could be imposed at present.

"Steps to prohibit idleness and non-effective occupation will be welcomed by our people.

"We shall give the idlers and men not effectively employed the choice between military service and effective employment. Every man, in the draft age at least, must work or fight.

"This is not alone a war or military maneuver. It is a deadly contest of industries and mechanics.

Must Copy German Machine. "Germany must not be thought of as merely possessing an army, we must think of her as being an army—an army in which every factory and loom in the empire is a recognized part in a complete machine running night and day at terrific speed. We must make of ourselves the same sort of effective machine.

"It is not enough to ask what would happen if every man in the nation turned his hand to effective work. We must make ourselves effective. We must organize for the future. We must make vast withdrawals for the army and immediately close up the ranks of industry behind the gap with an accelerating production of every useful thing in necessary measure. How is this to be done?

"The answer is plain. The first step toward the solution of the difficulty is to prohibit engagement by able-bodied men in the field of harmful employment, idleness or ineffectual employment, and this induce and persuade the vast wasted excess into useful fields.

"The very situation we are now considering, however, offers great possibilities in improvement of the draft as well as great possibilities for the composition of the labor situation by effective administration of the draft. Considering the selective service law, we see two principal causes of detriment of the call to military service—exemption and the order numbers assigned by lot.

Exemptions in Two Categories.

"The exemptions themselves fall into two conspicuous categories—dependency and industrial employment. One protects domestic relations, the other the economic interests of the nation. Between the two there is an inevitable hiatus, for it is demonstrably true that thousands, if not millions, of dependency exemptions have no effect of industrial protection whatever. "One of the unanswerable criticisms of the draft has been that it takes men from the farms and from all useful employments and marches them past crowds of idlers and loafers to the army. The remedy is simple—to couple the industrial basis with other grounds for exemption and to require that any man pleading exemption on any ground shall also show that he is contributing effectively to the industrial welfare of the nation."

Mrs. Godden Tells How It May be Passed in Safety and Comfort.

Fremont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared."

—Mrs. M. GODDEN, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio. Such annoying symptoms as heat flashes, nervousness, backache, headache, irritability and "the blues," may be speedily overcome and the system restored to normal conditions by this famous root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If the poisons which enter your system through the blood and stomach are not entirely thrown out by the kidneys and bladder, you are doomed.

Weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, backache, stomach trouble, headache, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gall stones, gravel, difficulty when urinating, cloudy and bloody urine, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago, all warn you to look after your kidneys and bladder. All these indicate some weakness of the kidneys or other organs or that the enemy microbes which are always present in your system have attacked your weak spots. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are what you need.

They are not a "patent medicine," nor a "new discovery." For 200 years they

The Newcomer

"I must agree with you," Mrs. Chandler assented. "I am particularly averse to unattached females at all times. Walt's last letter was all about some vampire who has him in her clutches."

Miss Tucker, forgetting she was included in the category of "unattached males," joined in the general laugh. I knew Mrs. Chandler's husky son d his dotting mother's war on luring mpiries.

The cuckoo's four o'clock warning at the Maple Square Ladies' club urying to their respective homes, ere soups and stews boiled and ewed to a rapid demise.

Mrs. Chandler, obliged to pass the wcomer's home, had decided to walk st head up. She would have walked st nose up, but an unkind Providence had endowed her with a plebian se, persistently downcast. Out of a corner of her eye she could see the welcomed neighbor rocking on the rch. She was aggravatingly pretty white dainty as she rocked and cro- ed, industriously whistling a itchy tune. It was a warbled trill, rs. Chandler afterwards was sure, ich made her step on the orange elling, and the run of notes was still her ears as her pride and person l. It all happened so quickly, she ver could determine how she found herself, nightgowned and doctored, in the home of this "person." It was Dr. Nutting, himself, who was murmuring something about "absolutely not to be moved." Incoherent thoughts, sharply interrupted by ugly pains in the leg, furrowed her brow.

"Now, don't let it worry you," a soft and very gentle voice was saying. "Doctor says it's a serious fracture, and you must not be moved; but you're ever so welcome." The bright smile and clear, blue eyes confirmed the words.

In the many weeks that followed, Mrs. Chandler came to love her pretty and competent nurse; she had no daughter of her own and experienced for the first time novel appreciation of little acts of tenderness and consideration.

"Perhaps you've been wondering," she abruptly began one afternoon, "why none but my husband has come to visit me here. You see the folks round here don't take kindly to new people, and we were all so disappointed in the Santleys, who last rented this house, we felt we had to be careful about the next tenant."

"But," she added, vehemently, "when I get on my feet again, I'm going to tell the Maple Square Ladies' club that you're better than all of them put together. Why, you're the first girl I've ever met that I'd want Walt to marry."

The girl blushed and her eyes glistened.

"You know," Mrs. Chandler continued, proudly, "Walt's my boy—and I'm hoping you'll blush like that when he sees you. He's coming home soon."

Autumn had come to Maple square and found Mrs. Chandler well on the road to complete recovery. Propped up in a cozy armchair before the large bay window, she watched in excited anticipation the children shuffling through the fallen leaves swept into the gutter. She was thinking of her son, expected that day, and of the debt she owed this girl who had taken her into her home and heart. Truly she had learned goodness was more than living straight—it was loving gentleness and generous kindness.

"Look," she cried out, striving to rise from her armchair, "there comes Walt! Call to him before he passes by! Quick!"

And Mrs. Chandler was due to another shock as she saw her stalwart son unfold the newcomer in his arms —just as if he had done it many times before.

"Sure, mother," he was explaining once again, "didn't we know how you distrusted all girls? So we hit upon the plan of Little Sweetheart coming here first—for I knew she'd make you love her."

Mrs. Chandler smiled through her tears. "She's done more than that, Walt."

Mrs. Gregory, wrapper-clad, was already regretting that some married couple "with two or three children and likely to remain permanently" were not taking the premises.

As the piano was laboriously unloaded, each watcher came to the conclusion the newcomer was a piano teacher, come to turn Maple square into a workshop. The girl, unconscious of the hostile sentiment aroused as if by a single connecting circuit, entered the house and could be seen through the large bay window making some effort to create order out of the chaotic jumble of chairs, boxes and barrels. As Grocer McCann's two boys mounted the steps, a dozen housewives decided their larders needed replenishing, and Grocer McCann, knowing his trade, did a half-hour's rushing business, his tongue only slowing up when he made change.

"Yes, Mrs. Gregory," he went on, weighing out a niggardly pound of dry limas, "she walks in here around eleven this morning (seems as if she must've got in on the ten-fifty) and gives me a good-sized order; asks to have it delivered. I was for marking the bill C. O. D., but she up and pays me. That's what I'd call a business woman."

"Shall I wrap up some of them prunes for you, Mrs. Gregory?" he broke off as he caught that unfortunate lady in the act of sampling one, "I just opened the box."

Mrs. Gregory nodded unwillingly. "And are your two boys helping our new neighbor?" she asked.

The grocer walked over to the counter on which he exhibited his stock of cheeses. Raising the glass cover, he waited, knife in midair. "Yes," he finally answered, as the knife descended with unswerving accuracy on fifteen cents' worth, "she asked me if I knew a couple of fellows who'd help her set up the beds and get things sort of straightened out."

He paused to wipe the knife on his apron. "She offered to pay well; 'n' Ed an' Ben 'll be needin' the extra money with school startin', so I sent them over. She's a right smart woman, and knows a deal about groceries—more as a great many of married folks."

Mrs. Gregory tried to look haughtily offended. Cupping the bags of limas, prunes and cheese in the crook of her left arm, and gathering her skirts together with her right, she swept out of McCann's Cash grocery, secretly vowing never to set foot in there again; only on his special Tuesday sales, when, it must be admitted, he sold, without any qualms of conscience, nineteen-cent cans of peaches marked down to twenty-nine.

The weekly meeting of the Maple Square Ladies' club had an unusually large attendance, compelling Mrs. Gregory, at whose home the club convened that week, hastily to dispatch her small daughter via the back door for the loan of additional chairs with which to accommodate her guests.

Mrs. Chandler, president, and very conscious of her new green silk dress, rapped for order. Mrs. Chandler liked to rap for order. She felt the gavel lent her dignity. The gavel had been donated by Mr. Chandler on his wife's installation into office. Thrice elected president of the Main Street Business Men's Association, he understood parliamentary law and how such things should be conducted.

But today, neither gavel nor green silk dress could hush the buzzing voices and shortly a very ruffled Mrs. Chandler announced the meeting adjourned. Mrs. Gregory, emerging from the kitchen with the china hastily garnered, commenced to distribute her stock supply of cream-cheese-and-nut-sandwiches, "so satisfying and easy to prepare," as she once confided in an unguarded moment.

It was Miss Tucker, richer in dollars than in sense, who fired the first shot. "We all forgot to suggest our new neighbor for membership; a committee ought to be appointed to call on her."

Mrs. Chandler did not like the spinster—she had not liked her, in fact, ever since that lady had looked with too favorable eyes upon her only son Walter. "You live next door to our new neighbor," she commented, glancing up; "have you called on her?"

Miss Tucker wagged her head with negative emphasis. "Since that Santley episode—" and she paused dramatically.

A Word of Precaution.

JUST wherein lies the reason for the use of vegetable preparations for infants and children?

Why are any but vegetable preparations unsafe for infants and children?

Why are Syrups, Cordials and Drops condemned by all Physicians and most laymen?

Why has the Government placed a ban on all preparations containing, among other poisonous drugs, Opium in its variously prepared forms and pleasing tastes, and under its innumerable names?

These are questions that every Mother will do well to inquire about. Any Physician will recommend the keeping of Fletcher's Castoria in the house for the common ailments of infants and children.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Letters from Prominent Druggists addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

S. J. Briggs & Co., of Providence, R. I., say: "We have sold Fletcher's Castoria in our three stores for the past twenty years and consider it one of the best preparations on the market."

Mansur Drug Co., of St. Paul, Minn., says: "We are not in the habit of recommending proprietary medicines, but we never hesitate to say a good word for Castoria. It is a medical success."

Hegeman & Co., of New York City, N. Y., say: "We can say for your Castoria that it is one of the best selling preparations in our stores. That is conclusive evidence that it is satisfactory to the users."

W. H. Chapman, of Montreal, Que., says: "I have sold Fletcher's Castoria for many years and have yet to hear of one word other than praise of its virtues. I look upon your preparation as one of the few so called patent medicines having merit and unhesitatingly recommend it as a safe household remedy."

SEND YOUR LOCAL PAPERS.

Next to a letter from home, a copy of the home town weekly paper is the best thing to send our boys over there. said Prof. Willard G. Blyed, head of the department of Journalism at the University of Wisconsin, in addressing a patriotic rally of North Dakota editors at Bismarck, under the auspices of the state council of defense.

"Give your readers to send copies of your paper to the boys or to cut out a column or two of 'local' and enclose them in their letters. The boys want to know what is going on in the home town they have left behind, and nothing tells them the news more satisfactorily than the local newspaper."

"Soldier boys in camps in this country are quite as eager to get the local weekly papers as are those on the other side."

Mr. Ralph W. Litchfield, who has been confined to his home for some time, is convalescing rapidly.

The class in the Osgood School, which was closed all last week on account of diphtheria, resumed its sessions last Monday, and the barges conveyed the pupils from the Hull street and West Corner districts. The fact that many of the parents are allowing children to stay out of school at this time is interfering seriously with the school work. At no time, in the opinion of those qualified to know, were the number of cases of diphtheria sufficient to warrant any thought of an epidemic, and both the board of health and the school authorities took every precaution to safeguard the children.

Corp. Frank J. Salvador, Conts. Co. No. 14, A. S. C. C., came home Monday on a five days' leave from Hempstead, L. I. He has a very patriotic record, enlisting at the time of the Mexican trouble and serving at the Border with Co. K, of the old 5th Mass. He transferred last fall from this outfit, which was then at Charlotte, N. C., and went to Kelly Field, Texas, where he joined his present outfit. He was promoted to corporal, and we learn from other sources that he may expect something good in the near future.

Arthur Mulvey has been granted a victualer's license by the board of selectmen, and will entertain parties with his famous Brecken Cheese luncheon in the future. There is a very general feeling of satisfaction at the action of the selectmen, as there is no question but Arthur Mulvey is a born host and no one who has enjoyed his hospitality will dispute this fact.

Bishop Babcock, suffragan bishop of Massachusetts is occupying the house on Borden Street formerly the home of Mr. John Sullivan now the property of Dr. Almaraz.

Mr. John Langdon, an employee of Mr. Louis Crockett, will occupy the house on Elm Court owned by Mr. Charles Fratus.

A farewell dinner was tendered Mr. Lary former Supt. of schools.

A Service Flag, containing 39 stars, to which three more will be added, was unfurled at St. Stephen's Episcopal church at 12 o'clock noon Sunday, May 28th. Within the church is a key to this service flag, and a record of service will be kept of every soldier and sailor who has gone out from St. Stephen's Church to participate in this present war.

After the war this flag will be presented to the church, and will be hung on the East wall of the church. The color in charge, Rev. Edward Lyman Eustis, gave an address, "The Purpose and Meaning of the Flag." Mr. Joseph S. Bigelow "broke the flag" and the congregation joined in singing "America."

Attention is called to the important notices of the Town of Hull printed in another column which includes the Board of Health, The Milk Inspector and the Fire Chief.

Ensign John Black, Jr., returned to Cohasset last Saturday after completing 5 trips across on the U. S. S. Seattle. Ensign Black is one of our adopted Cohasset men and is extremely popular with everyone. As instructor in charge of the manual training department of the Osgood School he was well liked by the pupils and accomplished a lot of good work. When he enlisted last year he was sent to Annapolis for a course of study in the completion of which he was assigned to the Seattle. At the end of a ten day leave he goes to English waters for the duration of the war. He will be attached to the destroyer service.

Last Friday night the Girls' Friendly Society had an enjoyable entertainment and dance at the Town Hall which was very well patronized. Two skitettes were enacted and those taking part performed well. Miss Mollie Fitch was extremely good as usual. Miss Rosamond Thayer received a lot of deserved applause as did also Miss Hazel Thayer, both young ladies being in very creditable manner. Miss Gladys Roberts, Miss Esther Bandura and Miss Edith Pratt in the skitettes entitled "Petulant Perfidy" were likewise well received. Miss Hazel Bennett of Beverly Farms gave an exhibition of fancy dancing which delighted the audience and which was indeed artistic and charming. She performed in a patriotic costume. Dancing followed the playlets until midnight. The proceeds of the affair will be devoted to the payment of a library which the society has subscribed to.

Ensign Lester W. Harding has been transferred from Portland, Me., to New York.

Two promotions of Cohasset men in the since which are especially pleasing to announce are those of Sergt. E. N. Tower and Wm. H. Morris, both of the 3rd Pioneer Infantry stationed at Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S. C. Sergt. Tower goes to the Headquarters of the Regiment as Personnel Sergeant with the regimental adjutant while former cook Morris will be Mess Sergeant of Co. K in Sergt. Tower's place.

The picture of Cohasset men in the service shown each week at the moving pictures by the Committee for Records and Relief are receiving a good deal of favorable comment. It is especially pleasing to the friends and relatives of the men and also serves to keep them fresh in our memories. Cohasset has without doubt the best record of any town in New England for number of men in the service in proportion to population. Besides a large majority of the men have received promotion since entering and in some cases 120 jump has been a good one. We have men in almost every possible branch and every one is giving a good account of himself.

It seems unfortunate that more magazines are not left for the Committee at Mr. Souther's store. The number of men in foreign service has nearly doubled and not half enough magazines are being left. It is earnestly requested that more interest be shown by the people in this respect.

MOURNED BY ALL

Mrs. Jessie M. Barron, wife of Hon. Clarence W. Barron, passed away Thursday, May 23. She was under the doctor's care for two years, but in spite of physical infirmities she still continued to take an active interest in the care of her family, and was a helpful adviser to Mr. Barron in all that pertained to his public and private affairs. She was born Jessie M. Bartaux at Annapolis, N. S., her parents being of French and English descent. She first married Samuel Wallis Waldron, one of the pioneer expressmen of the United States, and an associate of Adams, the "father" of the Adams Express Company. Mr. Waldron died many years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Barron were married in 1900 at "The Oaks," Mr. Barron's beautiful summer estate at Cohasset. Mrs. Barron's beneficence in private life and her liberal charity in church and town won for her the great love and appreciation. Her winter's have been spent at the Beacon street home, Boston, and her summers at Cohasset. Mrs. Barron attended St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, in which she took the deepest interest, and St. Peter's Cathedral in Boston.

She is survived by her husband, and also Mrs. Hugh (Jane) Bancroft, and three Bancroft grandchildren, and a fourth grandchild, Martha Endicott, infant daughter of Mr. and the late Mrs. Wendall (Martha) Endicott. Mrs. Endicott passed away about 2 years ago, since which time little Martha and her father have made their home at the Barron residence.

Funeral services for Mrs. Barron were held Sunday, May 26, at 2 o'clock in the Beacon street home. Rev. Dr. Gates, rector of St. Stephen's Church, Cohasset, now rector of the Church of the Intercession in New York City, officiated. Burial was at Forest Hills.

USE NO WHEAT, ENDICOTT BEGS

Urges People of Massachusetts to Use Substitutes Altogether

CITES EXAMPLE OF BIG HOTEL KEEPER.

"Use substitutes altogether for wheat flour" is the plea that Henry B. Endicott food administrator for New England has sent out to all householders and hotel and restaurant keepers in Massachusetts.

Already the leading restaurants, and hotel keepers of the country have entered into a pact with Food Administrator Hoover to taboo wheat products from their tables order that the entire national stock of wheat may be available to ship abroad.

Endicott's Statement.
In a statement on the matter, Mr. Endicott said:

"I wish to ask the public of Massachusetts not to bake any more bread from white flour, but to use substitutes entirely. Of course, this does not mean that people who have been baking their own bread should now buy from bakers.

"At a meeting with Mr. Hoover in Washington on Saturday, March 30, between 500 and 600 of the most prominent hotel and restaurant men in the country volunteered to eliminate white flour, graham, whole wheat flour and all other wheat products, including macaroni and spaghetti, entirely from their menus. This means that they have agreed not to buy any wheat product until the new harvest comes in.

"Now I call for wheat from abroad is more urgent than ever; every pound counts; a better opportunity will never come to us who are obliged to stay at home than to follow the splendid example of these hotel and restaurant men. It must not be said that Massachusetts has been called upon and found wanting.

"I am asking every club in Massachusetts to make the same agreement. I am sure the people of Massachusetts will not fail me.

Asked to Send in Names.
"In order that I may have positive proof which can be sent to Washington that we here in Massachusetts are going to leave ever" avenue free to ship wheat abroad, I am asking householders, hotels, restaurants and clubs who are willing to enter into this agreement to send their names and addresses to me at the State House on a postal card.

"This means that those who are in the habit of baking at home should continue, but they will have to limit themselves to such kinds of bread as muffins, pan breads and biscuits which can be made without any wheat flour. Such householders ought not now to begin to buy their bread from bakers.

"There are undoubtedly certain householders who cannot bake at home who have to buy from bakers. There may be others who are compelled by habit to use macaroni and spaghetti; this request is not made to them; it is intended only for the many who are, in fact, able to comply with it. We now have a chance which may never come to us again.

"The following from a recent statement of a French high commissioner in this country shows why America must conserve more wheat.

"America must do more toward reducing the domestic consumption of cereals and increasing exports to France," declared Andre Tardieu, French high commissioner to the United States, in an address delivered before the Southern Commercial Congress, in Baltimore March 18.

"You must do it because it is a case of necessity, because it must be done," asserted M. Tardieu. "For the past three months, the shipments of cereals from America to Europe have been short one-third of the supply recognized as indispensable to strictly compressed needs."

CANNON FIRE THE ONLY MUSIC TO HELP THE GISH GIRLS.

No Violin to Play Sobby Strains While Griffith Stars Enact Big Scenes for
"Hearts of the World."

How often have we heard of emotional actresses in motion pictures who insist they cannot properly "emote" unless there is a violin at hand to play sobby music. And we recall one very famous screen star who demands that an entire orchestra be furnished in order that her performance be escorted to the ethereal heights of frenzy.

Now comes Dorothy Gish, who with her sister Lillian appears prominently in the cast of "Hearts of the World" at the Majestic Theatre, Boston, and knocks the emotional music theory into a cocked hat. Little Dorothy claims that in world famous arrangements to D. W. Griffith, the producer, if she or her sister insisted on doing all their future emotional scenes to the same music that accompanied the taking of their latest picture, "Hearts of the World."

Says Dorothy: "It would cost Mr. Griffith the cost of a million dollars or more to provide the 'incidental sounds' The obligato for our emotional scenes was provided by several hundred British cannon standing almost wheel to wheel and pounding shrapnel and explosive shells into the trenches of the British. The music of the orchestra that supplied the music for the taking of our screen play was supplied by the rattle and crash of machine guns in action. The only whines and whimpers that inspired us in our work for 'Hearts of the World' were the shells singing overhead as they hunted their victims, the sputter of the motor ambulances hurrying to the rear with the wounded; the distant chattering of the airplanes ceaselessly encircling the trenches overhead."

Never have actresses registered the emotions of their play with such extraordinary circumstances. And never have they exploded the theory of "necessary emotional music" as a necessity than in the present instance.

WHAT CAN WE + DO?

From Red Cross Briefs, published in Atlanta the following inspiring account of Red Cross work in France is taken:
The national headquarters of the American Red Cross in Washington has just received a report from Major Perkins, Red Cross commissioner to France, on the work of civil relief and restoration done in France during the month of February.
During this one month, substantial aid was given to over a hundred thousand French refugees, repatriates and other war sufferers. This number included about twenty thousand persons in the devastated areas, seven thousand five hundred repatriates in provinces and nearly six thousand undernourished Paris school children. More than twenty-two thousand people were given hospital care during this one month, including thousands of repatriate children at Evian, and about a thousand tuberculosis patients in Paris who were given supplementary rations daily.
Work is now being conducted by the Red Cross in 98 French cities and villages, not including the Friends' unit which has 21 relief stations, or the Smith College unit which works in 11 villages. Nine civilian hospitals with a total capacity of more than a thousand beds and 46 dispensaries give care to children, tuberculosis patients and refugees.
Grants of money to French organizations during the month totaled more than half a million francs, and, in addition, large quantities of clothing, food and household goods were distributed.
The Red Cross now has a staff of 400 workers in France, 60 having been added during February.
General Pershing has just called on the army medical department to accept 100,000 convalescent uniforms made by American women and offered to the army. The general points out that the medical department is buying in the open market pajamas, operating gowns, bath robes and convalescent suits while the Red Cross stands ready to supply them. He tells the surgeon general at Washington that the work of the Red Cross is of immense value in keeping up the morale of the army, and that it also releases labor for use elsewhere.
Luncheon Favors.
Cut favors for a luncheon are little hats made of silk or ribbon. The brims are old-fashioned round pin pads and the crowns small stuffed pin cushions fastened to them. Make them to harmonize with the color scheme of the luncheon, trim with tiny ribbon roses, and put a row of colored pins around the edge.—Woman's Home Companion.
The Tea-Hour Frocks.
Tea-hour frocks for the most part are built from supple silk jerseys and soft satins. Some of the newest fancies heralding the happy days of spring are of the most ephemeral transparency. As adornment billowy frills of tulle dyed to match the negligee in coloring are much in favor.
Kid Linings.
Bright colored kid linings are a feature of some of the new gloves. Deep violet and rose and green, they are. Facings, they should more correctly be called. The colored part is turned back over the outside of white in a wide cuff.

The Last Suits of Summer

The last efforts of the designers in suits for this summer are eloquent of two influences. One of them is the adaptation of styles to silk fabrics—including several novel weaves—and the other proclaims the conservation of wool, carried to its limit, in suits of cloth for ordinary street wear. The result is a great difference in style between suits of silk and suits of wool. The wool suit must repress all ambitions in the direction of embellishment that use up cloth and must even curtail the length of coats and width of skirts. But the suits made of silk are under no such obligations. They may be as simple and elaborate as the designer's ideas.
The maker of the little cloth suit pictured has accepted the inevitable gracefully and, it appears, has used something less than the allotted four yards of goods. But he has managed to put a lot of youthful style into it. The short coat has a plain, unshaped, body gathered into a wide belt, and a mere reminder of a skirt in the narrow peplum. There is a narrow shawl collar open to the belt and plain sleeves with no cuffs. Narrow silk braid bindings and bone buttons tell the brief story of finishing touches. Plain as the skirt is, it is cleverly draped and finished. Two tabs, bound with braid, are set on at the sides and each has a small, slit pocket in it.
Pougees can never lose the allegiance of women. The handsome model, for a dressy suit, is made of pougee in the natural color and betrays the work of experts in every particular. The skirt has a panel at the front and back formed by plaits that are not pressed in and is cut to ankle length. It is simple enough; but there is nothing simple about the coat. It is the creation of a master designer who was able to carry out an elaborate inspiration. Its skirt is made in pointed panels of uneven length and large and small covered buttons serve to ornament it. The print and button ideas appear again in the cuffs. A suit like this gives its wearer the assurance of being well enough dressed whatever the demands may be.

Quantities of delightful models, both imported and domestic, are developed in white—white wool, white silk, white linen and white cotton—and both the oyster white and ivory white are featured as well as the clear whites. In heavy crepe tissor of oyster white there are some admirable frocks and three-piece costumes, and the deep ivory whites are combined in especially felicitous ways with old-blue and Chinese blue.

SCITUATE'S SNAPPY SHOTS

HAVE YOUR EYES PROPERLY CARED FOR

The Soldiers' Monument at Scituate will be dedicated Monday, June 17th, and it promises to be one of the biggest times that Scituate has had for a long time. Miss Eunice Lawson is to unveil the monument.

Everett L. Webb stepped on a rusty nail last Thursday, and it nearly went through his foot.

Rev. Warren P. Lamers, Secretary of Massachusetts Total Abstinence Society, gave a very interesting talk Sunday evening at the Trinitarian Congregational Church. There was a good attendance.

Miss Mildred Hunt is training at the Scituate Telephone Exchange. Fred W. Hyland has been transferred from Fort Slocum, N. Y., to the 9th Machine Gun Company, Main Training Department, Camp Hancock, Georgia.

Mr. Robie Nichols, formerly of Scituate, and Miss. 11111 were married Sunday evening at the bride's home.

(The correspondent forgot to fill in the name of the charming bride, but we wish her joy, just the same. We know she is charming, because brides, like the sweet girl graduate, are always charming, and always beautifully gowned; and we will be glad to give her name next week, provided we know it. Anyway, we hope the couple will be happy all the days (new time) are long.)

HINGHAM HAPPENINGS

City Engineer Arthur D. Marble and Mrs. Mary Fisher Dewey, both of Lawrence, were married at Mills, May 18 by Rev. Raymond Blakely of the Congregational Church, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Edmund N. Clark. Mr. Marble is the brother of Charles Marble of this town. After a dinner party at the Hotel Touraine, Boston, the couple left for New York. They will reside in Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Powell of Annapolis, N. Y., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Henderson of Hingham Centre.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Hix are occupying their summer home at Hingham Centre.

Miss Louise Henderson of Bridgeport, Conn., has been visiting her parents, and also attending the Unitarian Society held in Boston.

Miss Marian Henderson, who is nursing at the Boston Baptist Hospital was home over Sunday.

Mrs. O. J. Betting is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith at Newton Highlands over the holiday.

The Hingham Vets raised $165.00 for the benefit of the Red Cross fund last week.

Louise, Norman, Harold and Robert Garvin are having the whooping cough. The Girls' Friendly Society are to give a play Friday evening of this week, "Her Radiant Smile." It is hoped it will be well patronized because half of the funds are to be used for war work.

Next Tuesday evening, June 4, the Girls' Friendly Society are to hold a Dancing Party.

Mr. Karl Bjorkland has returned from Brown College, Providence, R. I., to the home of his parents in Hingham.

Mrs. James Hallett has returned home from a visit in New York.

Mrs. Annie M. Silver has returned to her own home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Mason and family are now occupying their summer home on Martin's Lane.

Services were held at Saint-John's Episcopal Church Sunday last for the G. A. R., S. of V., and the W. M. C. Only a few members of the different societies were present.

Misses Kittie and Maud Hall were the guests of their aunt in Boston Sunday last.

The seven cent supper, which was held at the Universalist Parish house Tuesday last was well patronized.

Some of our Hingham Soldiers who are in France have been gassed.

FOREST FIRE LOSS IN 1917 FAR LESS THAN IN FORMER DRY YEARS

Losses from fires in national forests last year amounted to $1,358,000 according to figures compiled by the Forest Service. While the loss was larger than for several years, it was unusually light considering the dangerous conditions. Protracted drought and periods of high winds made conditions virtually the same as in 1910, when $2,900,000 worth of timber on national forests was destroyed.

Careless campers were responsible for 1,283 fires. Railroads, partly through failure to comply with the law, set 1,009, while the number of incendiary fires is given as 922. The total number of fires fought was 7,814. All but 2,132, set by lightning, were caused by human agencies.

A "MOTHER'S" LETTER

On board the U. S. S. C. No. 269.
At Rockland, Me., May 11, 1918.

Dear Mother:
I deeply regret that I can't be with you tomorrow for "Mother's Day." But I will be with you on the next. Thank God. I shall wear my pink for you even tho' I am not with you with the same love that I have always had for you.

I hope that you have sister with you tomorrow and perhaps Grace and George that they may in a measure make up for my absence. There are so many homes that will be empty tomorrow. Some have sons in the trenches, some in training and some in the navy. The folks at home must be brave at such a time and wait until the great democracy that we are now striving for rules the world. God grant that it may be soon and the homes that are now desolate and dreary will again be bright.

The boys I grew up with, went to school with and became a man among, are doing their bit on the other side. I am proud of the fact that I can say that I came from the same little town that they did. I hope that some day soon we may be together again as in days gone by.

We must sacrifice for them first as they are doing for us. I heard a man say last Sunday that the folks at home should cut down on their food supply for the sake of the boys "over there." I know that the folks at home do and so with their generous operation we shall and will win this war. Democracy shall rule this world and we will see that it does. Our lives will be readily given in the cause of Humanity.

God is with us always and we should receive him into us. He will help us in this great struggle and will help our great nation and the Allies win this war and stamp out Kaiserism. It has become a curse of Humanity. We must wipe it out.

May the good Lord protect our boys from home who are "over there" dying for us each day.

It is most time for my watch now so I shall have to close and leave you.

I hope that Dad is better this night. Love to him, to Jim and to my dear sister.

Love and kisses for yourself.
Sonny Boy.

PLAN FOR CONSERVATION OF WHEAT

1. General Request to Householders Not to Use Any Wheat.

All householders who can do so are asked not to use any wheat products from this date until the new harvest comes in in the Fall. This request covers not only white flour, but also graham flour, whole wheat flour, wheat breakfast cereals, macaroni, noodles, spaghetti, vermicelli, and all crackers, bread, cake, doughnuts, pastry, etc., containing any wheat flour.

Householders who have habitually baked their own bread will not now begin to buy of bakers, but are expected to use only those kinds of bread, muffins, pan breads, spoon breads, etc., which can be made without any wheat flour whatever. Bakers' bread must be left for those who are unable to bake at home.

Beginning April 14, bakers' bread (Victory Bread) will contain 75 per cent. of white flour and 25 per cent. of substitutes.

2. Rules.

If any white flour is bought by those who cannot or will not comply with the above request, the following rules are rigidly established:

(a) Householders are urgently requested not to buy more than one-eighth of a barrel of flour at one time; and are not permitted to buy more than one-eighth of a barrel at one time.

(b) White flour requires the purchase of an equal weight of substitute cereals. Graham or whole flour requires the purchase of six-tenths of a pound of substitutes for each pound of flour.

The only substitutes permitted are as follows: Cornmeal, Corn flour, Corn grits, Edible cornstarch, Hominy, Rice, Rice flour, Oatmeal, Rolled oats, Oat flour, Steamed oats, Barley flour, Buckwheat flour, and Potato flour. Substitutes must be bought and used strictly for human consumption, and must not be wasted.

Rules on Hoarding Now in Force.

1. Flour: not over 30 days' supply permitted.

2. Other articles: not over 60 days' supply permitted. This does not apply to canned goods, preserves, and produce of the owner's farm or garden.

GLAD NOTICE IS TAKEN

Our "esteemed contemporary" editor of the Hingham Bucket asks us to put in one of our "spasms" under the "Time" Topics this week. It is very gratifying to know he enjoys reading them. The characterization is his. We have thought that some valuable information was given in that column and are now sure of it.

REAL ESTATE NOTES

Mr. J. C. Reilly has taken one of Mr. Fred Sylvester's houses on Mayflower road. Mr. M. S. Beebe will occupy one next door. The two families are friends.

Mrs. Louise Kelly has leased one of Mr. Sylvester's cottages on Beacon road.

Marshfield went well over her quota in the Red Cross drive last week. As the figures are not complete a list will be published next week.

Gordon Murdoch, a grandson of Capt. Benj. Calhoun, is on his way to the front in France with his regiment. Another grandson, Harold Tillson, is with a medical unit at Camp Devens.

Harlow had an early morning call from her mother last Friday. Padlocks do not worry some people.

The South Primary School voted a fine sum for the Red Cross at their play Saturday evening. Everyone says the little folks are stars.

The G. A. R., R. C. S. of V., and Ladies Auxiliary worshipped together at the Baptist church, Marshfield Hills, last Sunday morning.

The potato campaign is becoming serious. Must we eat all there are in Bureau is sending out some new potato receipts.

Mrs. George Porter is nursing in South Duxbury.

Mrs. Walter Scavens, Mrs. Oliver Hatch, Mrs. Herbert Macomber and Mrs. Emma Cudworth attended an executive board meeting of the Plymouth Chapter, A. E. C., in Plymouth on Wednesday.

The State Tractor plow has finished at Frank Harlow's and James Stevenson's and moved on. They say the work is well done.

Plans are on foot by the D. A. R. to make their flag raising on the training field a church a memorable affair. All patriotic orders, including Red Cross members, are invited.

Walsh is to be the speaker of the day. The exercises begin at 2.45 p. m., June 17, and the speaking will take place in the church.

Mrs. W. S. Seaverns attended the funeral of her nephew, Fred Flagg, in Roxbury, on Sunday.

Mr. Israel Hatch is not feeling up to the trip with the veterans and Mr. James Rogers was officer of the day on Thursday.

The pupils of the schools of South Marshfield gave, under the direction of Miss Lulu Sinnott and Miss Margaret Baker, a very interesting entertainment at Vestress Hall, Saturday evening. An operetta entitled "May Baskets New," occupied the first part of the program.

The principal parts were taken by Wilfred Bonney, Lillian Brown, Lida Taylor as cook who was chosen by Melville Sinnott, representing Uncle Sam, to be Queen of the May. The Camp Fire girls in their attractive costumes, gave a well received number, consisting of a recitation by Pearl Chapman and a song by the group. Hearty applause was given this number.

The "Blue Birds" won all hearts with their graceful dances, their pretty songs, and their charming valets.

There was a large audience and many expressions of pleasure and appreciation were heard as the company left the hall. The proceeds of the evening were given to the Red Cross.

We are glad to announce that Rev. W. A. Squires has reconsidered the call given by the First Cong. Church, and is expected to take up his duties this week. The church considers itself very fortunate in securing Mr. Squires as pastor.

Now let the people make Mr. Squires glad that he did not accept the other call, and as we weeks go by may day more and more be convinced that he made the right choice in coming to Marshfield.

Let every Sunday be a "Go to church Sunday" and every one lend a helping hand!

Marshfield, as it has always done, had "gone over the top" in the Red Cross drive. Although our quota of $1200 seemed large, 75 cents for each man, woman and child in the town, for with so many of our own boys in the service and for such a noble cause who could help giving, even if it meant sacrifice? The sacrifice is nothing compared with that made by our boys.

Next Sunday, June 2, is Children's Day in the church.

Every parent is urged to have the children attend this service. Come with them instead of sending them and the day will have double the value.

The Mayflower Pomona Grange will hold its meeting in Vestress Hall, Marshfield, Saturday June 8.

The dinner will be served by the Marshfield W. C. T. U. Tickets 35c. Mrs. Eldon Bailey Mrs. R. L. Webster, Mrs. Herbert Chandler and Mrs. Fred Bonney are the dinner committee.

With such a committee no one need doubt that an excellent dinner will be served.

Dinner will be served in Sons of Veterans Hall, at half-past twelve.

The Grange will hold an open meeting in the afternoon, and you are invited to come and hear Robert W. Merrick of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture talk on "Market Problems: what can we do to solve them?"

Entertainment will be furnished by Webster Grange Duxbury, and No. Marshfield granges.

Marshfield H. S. played the Pembroke

H. S. Monday afternoon. They looked pretty well in their new baseball suits, but they were beaten in spite of their fine appearance. Score 10 to 11 in favor of Pembroke.

The "Committee of Three" with their friends and fellow workers from Plymouth, Kingston and Marshfield Hills will meet in the Congregational Chapel June 7, at 2.30 P. M.

The Garden Club has changed its time of meeting and will meet every other Wednesday for an all-day meeting.

All members are urged to attend, as the work that is being done is much needed in the hospitals in France.
